Gathering of Information

This website does not collect personally identifying information about any individual website user except when knowingly provided by such individual. For example, we may ask you for information when you register for meetings, participate in a survey or ask to receive a newsletter or e-mail. You have the option not to provide the information we request.

Our site's secure information requires users to give us contact information (like their name and email address). We use contact information to send the user information about FPAofGP. The user's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future mailings by unsubscribing at any time.

Use of Information

Our primary goal in collecting user information is to enhance your membership value and experience on our website. We achieve this goal by, among other things, providing interactive communications such as our electronic newsletters to the e-mail address that you provide to us, and developing future editorial content based on your interests. To develop content targeted to your interests, we use aggregated user information to determine which areas of our website users prefer based upon traffic to those areas. The focus is on how well each page or content area performs overall.

This website contains both free public pages and also password-secured pages for members only. We derive revenues from membership dues, meeting fees and partnerships. In order to attract and retain partners we use the aggregated, anonymous information that we gather (as well as information from third-party market researchers) to describe our services to partners and to assist our partners to better understand our audience.

This website may also disclose information about our users when we believe, in good faith, that the disclosure is required by law.

When you are on an area of www.FPAofPhoenix.org and are asked for personal information, you are sharing that information with FPAofGP.

Please be aware that www.FPAofPhoenix.org partners, advertisers or websites that may have links on our site may collect personally identifiable information about you when visiting their websites. The information practices of those parties and websites linked to www.FPAofPhoenix.org are not covered by this privacy statement. In the event that we learn we have collected any personal information from a child under the age of 13 without verification of parental consent, we will delete that information from our database as quickly as possible.
